

I am very opposed to allowing banks or other business that I do business with to have the option of calling my home.